DR. JOHN BULL'S
Great Remedies.
DR. JOHN BULL'S
Concentrated Extract of BUCHU
COMBINED WITH Bromide of Potassium.

Purchase a bottle and carefully read directions.

BUCHU is a stimulant, and of itself may fail to effect a cure, but Buchu, when scientifically combined with Bromide of Potassium, and other ingredients, produces a relative effect, and causes a healthy action, thus increasing the powers of digestion, playing irritation, and allaying natural swelling, stopping pain and inflammation, and causing the repair and nutrients in the human body to be given. The cure is then preventing decomposition and gives nourishment, health and vigor to the system.

My Buchu is good for all diseases arising from excess, such as Weakness, and Pain in the Back and Legs. It cures all kinds of the Blood, Weak Nerves, Pallid Countenance, Dryness of the Skin, Scrofula, Syphilis, in its many forms, Ulcers, Tumors.

If your system is affected by any of the above symptoms and diseases, relief is at hand. Get a bottle of my Buchu and Bromide of Potassium at once, and you may rely on being cured.

I know just what I say. My record as a Compounder of Medicine is second to no man in the South-west.

Twenty-five or thirty years ago, as my fellow-citizens know full well, found me behind the prescription counter in the city in which I now dwell. I have cured more people of various diseases than all the physicians in Louisville put together.

I am no upstart of yesterday. My Medicine is a success—a great success. Louisville is not large enough for me to have a competitor. I monopolize the Wholesale and Retail Trade here.

One other has tried by copying after me here in Louisville, to compete with me, but, one after another, their efforts have been abandoned, and their efforts have been abandoned.

HICKMAN R. A. CHAPTER, No. 49.—The Hickman R. A. Chapter No. 49 meets the 4th Wednesday in every month, at night, at 8 o'clock. W. M. Nelson, Secy. W. M. Nelson, Secy.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAIL.—The Mail via N. & W. Railroad arrives at Hickman at 12:45 p. m. and departs at 7 a. m. daily, except Sunday. Mail closed at 6 a. m. The Post Office will be kept open one hour Sunday morning.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One copy one year (in advance) $2.00 Five copies one year, " " 10.00 Ten copies one year, " " 20.00 All names of clubs to be handed in at same time, from same post-office, and accompanied by the cash.

THE FULTON DEMOCRACY.—The delegates appointed by the last Democratic Convention of this county, to attend the State Convention which assembled in Frankfort, May 3, 1871, are requested to meet at the Hickman Courier Office, Monday, June 12, 1871, for the purpose of casting the vote of Fulton county for Register of Land office.

H. A. TYLER, Chm. m.

SOME few apples are being brought to market.

THE candidates for the Legislature speak at Fulton Station, in this county, to day week.

THE Masons and Good Templars of Jordan Station, in this county are to have a grand celebration and turn out the 24th of June.

THE candidates for the Senate, and candidates for the Legislature, are advertised to address our people at the Court House, next Monday. Speaking will commence at 10 o'clock, p. m.

THE Hon. Thomas C. McCreery, candidate for the Senate, is advertised in the Orleans papers, to speak at Clinton, June 21st.

A dead body was found in the river near town Sunday evening last. The body was naked, and not the slightest clue obtained as to its identity.

THE Louisville Commercial suggests Col. Jno. C. Noble, of the Paducah Herald, as the future political editor of the Louisville Ledger.

THE candidates for the Senate, and some of the candidates for the Legislature, addressed the people of Hickman county, at Clinton, last Monday. They speak at the court house, in Hickman, next Monday.

THE KENTUCKY TIMES.—This paper has recently passed into the hands of H. W. Wall, a man of great experience, journalist, and man greatly improved in all its departments.

BEST QUALITY OF PRINTING PAPER AND ENVELOPES, WM. FRENZ'S Book and Stationery Store, Clinton Street, opposite J. H. Plant & Bro.

GOLDAIDY'S LOTTERY.—A letter from the proprietor, Mr. J. R. Goldaidy, says next Monthly Drawing, (July) will be held in Hickman. This drawing is under special authority by the Kentucky Legislature, and the net proceeds are designed to help the blind. The drawing will be conducted at Hickman with open doors, and by a committee of our own citizens.

A PATENT BOILER.—The most completely arranged little patent we have noticed lately, is the Patent Boiler, to be found at the Variety Store of S. N. White. Cooks pronounce it an indispensable convenience, and having one on trial we can favorably recommend it. It not only boils better but makes the task more pleasant and less laborious than the cook. Every family should have one, especially when the wife is the cook.

WILLIAM FRENZ has just received a large and splendid stock of Gold, Silver and Jewellery of every description, consisting in part of Ladies Jet and Plated Sets, Brooches, Necklaces, Garters, Rings, Studs and Sleeve Buttons, Watch-Guards and Vest Chains, Flower and Work Baskets, &c., all of which will be sold to customers at less than city prices. Call and see for yourselves.

THE COUNTY COURT.—The Board of Magistrates for Fulton County will meet next Monday. The proposition to build a new jail, to build a bridge across Bayou de Chien, and several other matters of public improvements will be considered and acted upon. The bridge across Bayou de Chien is of first importance and attention to the matter, we are led to believe, will save the county an unpleasant and profitless litigation.

MUSICAL BOXES, Violins and Violas, Bows, Guitars, Banjos, Flutes, Accordions, French Harps and a general line of musical merchandise of every description always in store, at greatly reduced prices. WM. FRENZ, Clinton Street, Hickman, Ky.

Rayson's Hot Cholera Medicine. Our friend Wm. Walker, Druggist, has bought the exclusive right for Fulton County to sell and sell this celebrated medicine for Hot Cholera. This specific medicine is a most certain cure and prevention, and is so recommended by many of the largest hog raisers in the State. Mr. Walker is alone entitled to make and sell the medicine, and is willing to give it a trial must apply to him.

The Temperance Festival.

The Temperance Festival to come off on the 17th, in the vicinity of this place, will be a grand affair. The arrangements are on an extensive scale, and should the day prove favorable, we may expect more people in Hickman than there has been in many a day. All of the Lodges of the county have been invited and should there be a general turnout, and we understand there will be, the procession will be a large one, as there are not less than 500 members of the Order in this county. Be it understood that this Festival is not exclusively confined to the Templars, the public are invited to be present and participate in the festivities.

PLEASURE GARDENS.—Our teutonic friend, Francis Miller, has commenced the preparation of his admirably situated grounds in Gouley's Addition, for a pleasure garden. He will erect suitable buildings, and especially a ball room, larger and better arranged than any Hickman now possesses. This will be a popular resort, and will afford the citizens of Hickman and visitors to our town, an opportunity to enjoy themselves and music and general festivities, on all occasions.

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS IN FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT.—The Auditor's report for 1870, shows that there were during last year only 148 criminal prosecutions in this judicial district. Of these Fulton had 13. Hickman 80, Ballard none, McCracken 36, Marshall 8, Callaway 11, and Graves none. Hickman county has 12 more than all the other counties together.

FOR GOOD CIGARS, go to JOE'S.

A TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.—We are glad to learn that our friends Bonard & Drewry, are to establish a regular tobacco warehouse, in Hickman. Our business men have been very neglectful of this feature since the war, but we are now pleased to believe, that a paper interest has been aroused, and that a tobacco market will be established equal to the best in this section. Before the war we bought and handled between one and two million pounds annually, and it is probable, we can now do the same or a larger business. We trust our business men will lend substantial encouragement.

THE Trigg County Democrat opposes any intermeddling in the affairs of its Senate district by outside newspapers, and thanks the people up there can take care of their own business.

FOR COOL DRINKS, go to JOE'S.

THE Memphis Ledger has the following paragraph, a portion of which, at least, is worthy of attention by municipal authorities elsewhere: "The city in many localities is in a very filthy condition. At this time of the year a Board of health should be established, to suggest and put in force all sanitary precautions necessary to prevent disease known as epidemics."

EXAMINATION OF our exchanges from St. Louis and Cincinnati shows that money is abundant in those cities. The Cincinnati Gazette quotes money for reg. discounts of merchants paper at the bank at 5 per cent, and call loans at 6 per cent. In St. Louis similar rates are the rule.

From the Nashville Banner.

Let the Law be Enforced.

The Kuklux business is rampant in New York, and yet the President seems to be utterly indifferent to the terrible outrages perpetrated in the American metropolis. The New York Times, a noted Radical journal, heads the list of one day's bloody doing in glaring capitals, as follows:

THE SPIRIT OF MURDER.

Dreadful Scenes of Blood in the Metropolis Yesterday.

A Sunday Debauch and What Came of It.

An Officer on Post Shot Down by Patrolman Off Duty.

Bloody Scenes in a Sixth Avenue Drinking Den.

A Ninth Precinct Officer Shot in the Discharge of his Duty.

Savage Assault with Iron Bars, Knives, Clubs and Other Implements.

Amusement of the Dangerous Classes.

This thing must be stopped. In the name of justice, law and order we must demand that some protection be afforded to the peaceable, law abiding citizens of New York. It cures the blood to think of the demoniac doings of these hell hounds Kuklux in a city where they ought to have some foot hold.

THE Governors of the various Southern States are responding to the circular of the Committee on Southern Outrages, requesting information as to the indebtedness of those States, and their election laws. If they will give a correct report of what the indebtedness was when they went into power, and what it now is, we shall hear nothing more from General Harlan as to the extravagance of the Democratic party in Kentucky.

Proceedings of the City Council.

HICKMAN, June 7, 1871.
Council met. Present—Mayor Leardrum, Councilmen Baltzer, Case, Harner and McCutchen.
Minutes of preceding meeting read, adopted and signed.

ACCOUNTS ALLOWED.

Finance Committee reported the following accounts as correct and recommended their payment:
Albert Blackman, for removing dead hogs, $1.75.
W. L. Gardner, for removing dead hogs, $9.25.

On motion, orders were directed to be drawn on the City Treasurer in favor of said parties, for the amounts of the above accounts.

STREET ORDERED OPEN.

John Berger, came before the council, and asked to have Fulton Street, in West Hickman, opened from Brooklyn to Catlett Street.

On motion, H. A. Tyler and S. N. White, are hereby notified to open by the 1st of November next any part of Fulton Street, in West Hickman, enclosed by them.

On motion council adjourned.

W. A. BREVARD, City Clerk.

The Legislature.

Another Important Decision.

The Supreme Court delivered another important decision on Saturday last, in the case of W. W. Wisdom against the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Company. This decision was brought before the Circuit Court of Madison against said company, to compel them to take in payment of freight and passage the scrip or receipts, executed by the Tax Collector of Madison county, in 1854-55-56-57 and 1858-59, which tax voted by Madison of $50,000 per annum for these years, was collected and paid to the railroad. A peremptory mandamus was ordered by the Circuit Court, and on appeal to the Supreme Court the judgment was affirmed. In our view of the case this decision will let alone some $30,000 of tax receipts, as money, at least in transactions with the railroad in this and Gibson county, which latter voted $150,000 for the same purpose, giving at least $50,000 as the loss or destruction of that much of the scrip, by burning, mutilation and other means by which that amount has no doubt been retired, and which the company will not be called upon to redeem.

The opinion delivered by Chief Justice Nicholson covered all the points at issue, and was clear, able, forcible and unanswerable.—Jackson Whig and Tribune.

The white carpet baggers and native dark colored Radicals of South Caroli are not dwelling together in that delightful harmony which formerly characterized their relations. An African State Senator said to a New York Tribune correspondent, the other day, that "these fellows (the white State officers), when we put them in office, had no sense to their pantaloons; no they roll in money." That sort of thing is always objectionable, especially to those who do not get a share of the plunder.

MATTIE J. DAVIS was burned to death at Cincinnati a few days since, while lighting a fire with coal oil. At the present rate of casualties from this cause, there is hope that the race of fools will soon be burned out.

THE WASHINGTON RIOT.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The colored laborers' strike here assumed a more formidable phase to day, which resulted in the Governor and other officers of the new Territorial Government making a complete surrender to the mob who abandoned the work of the streets, which was under contract. This was done on the pretense of avoiding a general riot. That the riots to day were premeditated is shown by the inflammatory speeches made at a mass meeting. One of the ringleaders, named Marcellus West, colored, is thus reported: He advised them all to go home and organize Labor Unions, and let every club committee of three, to meet in general convention and adopt such resolutions and rules as will make contractors as well as the officials know and respect the laborers' rights. Go home, and, you find any of the contractors, take their hands off their shoulders. If the contractors will not pay the laborers the price agreed upon, they should have their blood. Let the workmen's motto be "Blood for blood." They have been swindling the colored people for years. Let Public Works have all the power, and have got the inside track of the Government in the giving out of the work, and, if they refuse to do what is right, "Blood for blood."

Heroic Conduct of a Brakesman.

The Mobile and Ohio Railroad carries what is called a combustible car, one in which they transport coal oil and powder. Yesterday morning a freight train, No. 6, Jack Baker conductor, was going south, at Rutherford station, before day, with its lamp, Baker went in the car to get out a barrel of gasoline. From some cause the gas became ignited, and in a moment the barrel, side and floor of the car were in flames. Notwithstanding the fact that the car was full of powder, Baker, with his lamp, rushed into the car, and actually smothered out the flames. His blankets, his hands, clothes and face were burned, while the car was badly scorched. Capt. Sprout, of the car, assisted materially. Too much credit cannot be awarded to Baker for his coolness, his devotion to duty. As a man of a family he risked too much, and President Murdoch could hardly find a man too highly.—Jackson Democrat.

"Time heals more wounds than medicine, and patience is a very good specific."

Such is President Grant's verdict concerning the Cubans. It almost tempts us to wish we were Cubans. Couldn't U. S. Grant, M. D. use his specific of patience on the South as well as Cuba, instead of doing us with his nauseous Ku Klux medicine.

BECHTOLD SEMINARY.

Hickman, Kentucky. THE PRINCIPALS, J. H. ROULHAC and Jno. W. Cowgill, would respectfully announce to the public that the first session of the Bechtold Seminary, at Hickman, Ky., will open on Monday, March 13th, 1871. The school now organized is designed to be a permanent institution at this place, and is already created is ample for the accommodation of one hundred pupils, and it is the purpose of the Principals to construct a new building, with all modern improvements, in desks, fixtures, &c., sufficient for 150 scholars. The school is open to students of both sexes, and may prove a blessing to those who desire musical instruction. This department will be under the charge of Mrs. Mary D. Bechtold, who is a competent teacher, and will give instruction in singing, piano, and all the modern and useful branches of music. The Principals hope soon to be able to found a regular and permanent school with ample accommodations for students of both sexes, and to give instruction in all the modern and useful branches of music. The war of Republican factions in New York has broken out afresh and with greater violence than ever. Tammany looks on with serene composure.

A HAPPY father in Florida is writing to the papers of his State about his baby, which is two weeks old, nine inches in length, weighs two pounds, and is remarkable for its beauty, vivacity and cheerfulness.

INTERESTING TO POSTMASTERS—Salaries of postmasters throughout the country are to be readjusted on the basis of their receipts during July and August of this year, and the new schedule of salaries will go into effect July 1, 1872.

The New York Herald says that a fresh combination of speculators to advance the price of gold is reported to have been made up in Wall Street. The parties implicated are said to comprise some of those who organized the gold "corner" of 1869.

INTERVIEW WITH GRANT.—In speaking of Gen. Sherman in connection with the Presidency, Grant said he and Sherman were warm friends. He was not authorized to speak for him, but he was pretty certain that Gen. Sherman would not stand on the Democratic platform of 1868.

MR. PENDLETON made a speech at the Columbus, Ohio, ratification meeting, cordially adopting and endorsing the platform and the ticket put forth by the Ohio Democracy. The Democrats of that State are already a unit, and the success of their ticket may be regarded as almost, if not quite, certain by a rising majority.

A YANKEE dead beat named Dunn is operating in the neighborhood of Brandon, Mississippi. He gets up revivals among the negroes, and then agrees to show them the Saviour, the angels and the martyred saints, for two or three children half price—the proceeds to go to the church. If this fellow should be tarred and feathered, he would doubtless figure in the New York Tribune as the victim of a Ku Klux outrage.

THE COST OF BEING HANGED.—San Francisco, June 7.—Mrs. Fair is said to have paid her counsel and physicians who testified to her insanity and attended her professionally, for hunting up witnesses and other expenses of the trial already over $20,000, and Dr. J. B. Task, her principal medical attendant and witness, now sues her for $2,000 more.

AN ancient proverb informs us that "every dog has his day." A careful observer of events insist that this year the crop of dogs is so much more abundant than that of days that there will hardly be one of the latter to go round among the former. He also advances the startling doctrine that it is in apprehension of not getting their dues that some dogs are going crazy.

THE BIG FLOOD STATIONARY.—NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—The water remains stationary an inch below the highest point reached. People continue moving from the overflowed districts. The President of the Gas Light Company states that the water does not stand at its present height two days longer the Company will be unable to supply gas.

ACCORDING to a San Francisco paper Mrs. Laura D. Fair takes the greatest pains with her toilet in prison, often changing her dress three or four times a day. She passes much of her time before her mirror, and while admiring herself, says: "The more I see of myself, the more I am convinced I can never be hanged. Such a face and form as mine was never created for the gallows." She modestly asserts she was never so handsome as she is now.

THE two great English-speaking countries are growing just now under a phalanx of loans. A cable dispatch says the Bank of England has on deposit twenty-four million five hundred thousand pounds. The banks of New York city now hold in their vaults fifteen million dollars gold and sixty-five million dollars legal tenders. The United States Treasury holds ninety-four million dollars gold.

HEAVY SUITS—$100,000 DAMAGES.—We understand that a suit has been instituted in the Ballard county Court of Common Pleas, by several gentlemen of that county, against the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Company, and that damages laid at $100,000. The damages claimed are because of the non fulfillment of a contract by the Mobile and Ohio Road, to extend the road through Ballard county, the Ohio river opposite to Calhoun, Paducah Herald.

The Issues of the gubernatorial Race.

Our space will permit us to give only a very brief summary of the issues being discussed by the Hon. Preston H. Leslie, the Democratic nominee, and General Jno. M. Harlan, the Republican nominee, for Governor, as made up in the canvass now progressing in Upper Kentucky.

GENERAL AMNESTY.

is the first proposition. Gov. Leslie argues, that immediately upon the close of the war, the Democracy have desired to have peace North and South, and to live together in a common brotherhood; and that every Democratic Convention in every part of the Union, had made this expression by unanimous resolutions. He asserted that notwithstanding the resolutions adopted in the last Republican State Convention in favor of Amnesty, that the party was opposed to it, and that the history of that party, its leaders, and their present nominees, give the lie to their professions, and bear witness for their vindictive, unforgiving policy.

Gen. Harlan in reply to this point, said the Republican platform of Kentucky was more liberal than that of the Democracy on the Amnesty proposition. That he, himself, had favored it since the close of the war, and declined to defend the extreme men of the party who opposed it. He argued that Leslie's remarks on this point was calculated to excite a feeling of unforgiveness towards the Federal soldier, and to stir up instead of allaying the passions of the war.

RAILROADS.

Leslie argued that he and the Democracy party, were the friends of railroad enterprise, and every other enterprise looking to the development of the resources of Kentucky. He knew the Radicals were seeking to create prejudice against him in certain sections because of his Senatorial vote against the Cincinnati Railroad, but that prejudice was unfounded.

Gen. Harlan responded that Leslie's declaration of favor to Internal Improvements was insincere. That the history of himself and party disproved it. That he and the Democratic party had the opportunity to aid such enterprise by granting the Cincinnati Southern Railway Charter, but refused at the detriment of Central Kentucky.

IMMIGRATION.

Leslie said, immigration was Harlan's great hobby; that he would have one believe that the Democracy was opposed to immigration to Kentucky, but the truth was, the Democracy had always encouraged foreign immigration. The difference was the Democracy preferred Caucasian immigrants and the Republican the African and Chinese. He and his party had championed the rights of the foreigner when Harlan and his party were opposing their coming to the country.

Harlan replied, that the Democracy had been in control of Kentucky for years, and had done nothing to encourage immigration, and that the States of the Northwest had outstripped Kentucky in population and wealth on this account. He charged that the reason immigrants did not come here, that the Democracy had fostered a feeling of hatred, bitterness, and lawlessness, and that people everywhere felt there was not sufficient protection for life and property, to cast their fortunes with us.

LAW AND ORDER.

Gov. Leslie asserted that the laws of Kentucky, and the disposition of her people, was equal to the protection of every citizen, and that crime records would show less crimes in Kentucky than in any of the States governed by the Republican party. He dwelt at length in review of the rulings of that party in the different States and in the National government. Harlan declined being held responsible for Butler, Stevens, Sumner, and the extreme men of his party.

COMMON SCHOOLS.

Gov. Leslie said the Democracy was the friend of the Common School system, and had given the people the best under the circumstances. That he had always voted for it, at the polls and in the Senate. That, however, the white men paid the school tax, and he wanted white children alone to be educated by it. He charged that Harlan's party was in favor of mixing the schools, and forcing the white tax payers to educate the negro children of the State. This he would never consent to.

Harlan replied that Leslie belonged to the party, which by their votes, in the Legislature sought to destroy the system, and to kill its efficiency by unfriendly legislation. That he (Harlan) was opposed to mixing up white and colored children in the common schools, and had repeatedly told Leslie so. That the Democracy taxed the negro on every thing, except for school purposes, and yet denied the negro any benefit of his own tax for education. He wanted the negro taxed for separate schools.

EQUALITY BEFORE THE LAW.

Leslie argued that the meaning of the phrase "equality before the law," was to be found in the programme marked out by Butler & Co., and illustrated in the present condition of the Southern States. That Harlan's sweet scented apologies and explanations were only for effect in Kentucky, and he preferred judging by the actual doings of his party. He asserted that the Democracy instead of being hostile to the negro, was and would continue to be his friend.

Harlan insisted that nothing more was meant by equality before the law, than rendering to the negro his rights to own property, to vote, testify in the courts, etc. That "social equality" was a bugbear, and could not be effected by law, even if the Republicans desired it.

THE AMENDMENTS—NEGRO TESTIMONY.

Gov. Leslie said he opposed the late amendments. Not however, because they conferred any rights or privileges upon the negro, but because they give Congress power to obliterate State governments, and take from the people or the State every constitutional right. The negro was a small matter in the issue, and so far as it touched or referred to him, could be easily settled. He proposed no violence or revolution on his account, but desired their repeal for the sake of constitutional liberty and the sovereignty of the States. That in regard to negro testimony he was personally in favor of it, but as Senator had voted against the proposition because his people had instructed him to do so, but he believed the next Legislature would qualify him as a witness.

Harlan argued that Leslie's position was calculated and designed to get up a war between the white and colored races, that his desire was to drive the negro from the State and from the country, and that the government which had given them freedom would make the land "roll in blood" before it would be permitted Leslie had scoffed at the idea of black men sitting in the Republican convention, but it was true that negroes are also members of the Democratic Convention. He asked from Democratic papers to prove it. He said if a large number made him in favor of negro equality why a small number did not make Leslie?

FINANCES.

Gov. Leslie invited a comparison of the financial rule in Kentucky with that of the Radical party in the Southern States. He cited facts and figures, and clearly exhibited that while Kentucky was nearly free of debt, every other Southern State under Republican rule was oppressed by a debt of millions. Leslie argued that what the State Revenue Department owed the State Sinking Fund, was in reality no debt, and could not be summed up against the State.

Harlan responded, charging numerous instances of unnecessary extravagance, and willful squandering of the people's money. He gave a list of expenditures made for Gov. Stevenson's Mansion; and charged Leslie with attempting to repudiate an honest debt, when he denied the debt due the Sinking Fund.

These were the prominent points in the discussion, and our brief summary is only intended to show what they are talking about, and of course does not do full justice to either side.

MR. BECK and the U. S. Senate.

"What claims Mr. Beck has upon the Democratic party to elect him to the United States Senate, are unknown to us. He certainly has never played so active or distinguished a part as to enable him fairly to claim their gratitude. What he did before the war, has never reached lower Kentucky. What he did during the war, has also yet to be tested by the people of lower Kentucky."—Paducah Herald.

How any democratic newspaper in Kentucky, or in the South, however strong their personal preference for Mr. Creery or any other favorite, can be so ungrateful as to deny Mr. Beck's claim upon the Democracy for preferment, passes our understanding. The whole Democracy, North and South, acknowledge him as their leader in Congress, and his whole record has been a ceaseless and noble effort in behalf of our interests. His record has reached lower Kentucky, and excites the highest enthusiasm in his favor. The malignant spirit which Mr. Creery's friends are exhibiting towards Mr. Beck, and towards all opponents, is doing their chief harm. Neither Mr. Beck, or his friends, deny Mr. Creery, nor would they deprive him of one laurel, but desire a fair judgment from the Democracy, hoping to rise upon acknowledged merit, and not upon the demerits of Mr. Creery, or any other aspirant.

THE Owensboro Monitor, Mr. Creery's home organ, copies with high commendation the Paducah Herald's article attacking Senator Holt because he voted against Mr. Creery. Strange, with what vindictiveness these Mr. Creery organs attack every public man, who happens to prefer some one else to their candidate?

When Mr. Beck made appointments to speak at various places in the State, we supposed his campaign was to be for the Democratic party and for the State ticket, but it seems that he is speaking for himself—Paducah Herald.

Well, well, what is your candidate, Mr. Creery, speaking for? Can't you support Mr. Creery without abusing Beck?

The aggregate value of paper currency in the country during the summer of 1865 was about $1,050,000,000, at which time the premium in gold danced around 150. The reduction of currency volume during the past six years has been nearly one third, while the demand for its use has increased in about the same proportion by the natural growth of business. One feature of this crushing currency policy has been that every debtor has been obliged to pay nearly double what he contracted for. Is it any wonder that Radicalism brings hard times?

THE year is rife with pestilence. The fearful ravages of yellow fever in South America are followed by small pox in London, Paris and New York, and now Russia reports cholera, and fears its rapid spread. Savants are trying to connect the epidemic with the French slaughter.

HON. DAVID A. WELLS estimates the aggregate of the loans known to have been negotiated in Europe last year at about $1,000,000,000, of which more than half was for trade purposes, and the balance on account of war and military expenses.

CINCINNATI SOUTHERN RAILROAD.

The Frankfort Commonwealth of the 2d inst. joins issue with us upon our article of the 27th ult. on the subject of "the Cincinnati Southern Railroad."

He says: "If the Legislature has no right to authorize property to be condemned for the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, it has no right to condemn it for any other Railroad, for all stand on a level as to being public vehicles of conveyance." All acts of Railroad incorporation ever granted by the Legislature of Kentucky which conferred the power to condemn private property for its use, were granted to certain named incorporators with instructions to open books for the subscription of stock; no restrictions upon any one taking stock but the great public given full power and authority to subscribe such amount of stock as they might choose; and then said stockholders are to organize by electing officers of their own choosing and are to have a voice in its control and management.

Did the charter asked for by the Cincinnati contain any such provisions? Did it propose to extend to the great public of Central Kentucky or elsewhere the right to take stock and have a voice in its control and management? Did it not rather vest the absolute ownership of said road in the single corporation of Cincinnati and confer upon the Trustees of said city, the sole power of its control and management, for the purpose, to use the language of the Fergusson Bill, "of promoting the essential interest of said City?" Is that such a public enterprise or public use contemplated by the Fathers of our Constitution as vesting the power in the Legislature to condemn private property?

If the Commonwealth will refer to the Iron Mountain Railroad act of which he speaks, he will find nothing therein that militates with our views. The charter of the Iron Mountain Railroad is upon the stockholders basis, and the great public, citizens of Kentucky included, have the privilege of acquiring stock in said company, and having a voice in its control and management. Nor does the act referred to by the Commonwealth confer any power or authority to condemn the private property of any citizen of Kentucky.

Again, the Commonwealth says, we are behind the times, in asserting that the "Legislature had no right or power to make or receive a contract by which citizens of another State are denied their constitutional right to transfer cases to the Federal Court." He says that the "point was yielded by the opponents of the charter in the Legislature as unfounded in law or precedent." With due deference to the editor's superior local advantage of knowing, we must be permitted to say that we have never yet met an opponent of the charter that had yielded the point. Nor would it effect the merit of the point at issue.

By the original Constitution of the United States, the privilege was guaranteed unto every citizen of suing a citizen of another State or the State itself in the Federal Court. Now, will the Commonwealth, the central organ of the Radical party in Kentucky, dare assert that a State can abrogate or abridge that privilege, in the face of the express declaration of that pet measure of Radicalism, the XIV Amendment, "That no State shall make or enforce any law, which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States." Surely it is a new role, in which the Commonwealth is playing a part, claiming for a State the authority to nullify an express guarantee of the Federal Constitution. But the Commonwealth, like all the advocates of the Cincinnati charter, failing of sound argument in its support, comes at last to cry mad dog! mad dog! "Louisville and Nashville Railroad! Tyrannical Monopoly!" We are not the champion of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad or of any other railroad monopoly; but what has that road to do with the merits of the question at issue. They say it is a "corrupt monopoly, oppressive to the people along its line and should be crushed; grant this charter and we will crush it." Let us see. The line of roads are too wide apart ever to come in competition for the freight of citizens of Kentucky along the respective roads, and could not there be benefit them in the least. It would probably cheapen the rate of through freight coming over the road, thus benefiting the citizens of foreign States, but at the expense of citizens and counties of Kentucky who own a large amount of stock in the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

Again, the Stockholders of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad are chiefly citizens of Kentucky, who elect its officers, control and manage the same. Its officers, as well as stockholders, are principally citizens of Kentucky, all of whom are identified with us in feeling and interest, and run the road in the interest of the stockholders. If then, as is such a tyrannical monopoly, as should require the power of the Legislature to crush her, in order that the State may be saved, what might we not reasonably expect of this Cincinnati Railroad, with all its gigantic powers centered in the hands of five trustees, besides being owned, controlled, managed and run in the interest of a foreign city, now and at all times, inimical to the institutions and interest of Kentucky?

One of the papers favoring the "new departure" of Vallandigham says: "There is no wavering in the Democratic ranks. There is agitation, but no mutiny. Even the Mobile Register, the most extreme of Democratic papers, says: 'If the majority decide against us we go with our friends.'

FRANCE.

Theirs Wants to Play Prim.

Paris Damaged $160,000,000.

Farre is preparing a reply to the manifesto of Prince Napoleon.

Thiers insists on giving the Republic a fair trial.

A COMPROMISE with ORLEANISTS.

The Verite says a compromise has been effected by which a law excluding the Orleans Princes from France will be repealed and their election to the Assembly declared valid. The Princes are, however, not to take the seats to which they have been chosen and must agree not to intrigue for the throne. It is said Thiers has given his consent to this plan.

VERSAILLES, June 7.—Special to the World.—On the highest authority I state that the fusion of the monarchists has wholly failed, owing to the intrigues of Thiers, who privately exults over the certainty of maintaining a nondescript republic, with himself at the chief, in the case of Prim in Spain for an indefinite period. Incessant attempts are being made in Paris to induce the soldiers to fraternize with the people. Intense dissatisfaction prevails among all classes, and fresh trouble is feared.

THE Verite estimates the damage to Paris from the fighting and the confiscation at $160,000,000. It is said 60,000,000 francs worth of merchandise were burned, exclusive of the docks of de la Vierge and the warehouse.

PARIS, June 6.—Several of the officials under the Emperor will become candidates at the supplementary election for the Assembly.

The Crescent City Gone Under.

Six Square Miles of the City Flooded.

NEW ORLEANS, May 5.—The flood of increasing water is up Canal street to Rampart street. With the exception of the neutral grounds on Canal street which is not entirely covered, east of Claiborne, there is an unbroken sheet of water from Villoy street to Metairie bridge, and from the new to the old basin, an area of five or six square miles, including about 300 thickly settled squares. The sufferings of the inhabitants of this quarter, especially among the poorer classes, is very great. Thousands living in single story houses have moved out, while most of those living in two story houses have been compelled to move into the second stories. Back of Claiborne street, on Canal street, there is an average depth of two feet of water. The city authorities seem to be doing all they can to alleviate the suffering of the people. Every available boat and skiff has been brought into use, and the policemen are moving in almost every direction, rendering such assistance as they can in moving those who are in danger, and distributing to those who need provisions.

The damage to property is estimated at $1,000,000. The Millburg and Ponce de Leon Railroad from Gentilly Station is still overflooded. The water in the lake is receding slowly. A train came through from Mobile on the 4th, on the Chattanooga Railroad—passengers report about four miles of the road under water. Passengers over the Jackson Railroad, who came in this morning, report that road under water from seven miles north of Pass Manch.

A June Rise of the Missouri Coming Down.

SIoux CITY, June 6.—The steamer Major arrived from up the river at 4:30 to day, and reports a heavy rise in the river at Yankton, nearly six feet in twenty four hours. She came down ahead of it, making the trip from Yankton to Sioux City, 171 miles, in the unprecedented short time of seven hours and thirty minutes. The river came up about three feet here to day, and is rapidly rising. Reports from up the river say the indications are that this June rise will be one of the highest ever known.

A FRIGHTFUL CYCLONE.

Most Wonderful Phenomenon.

CHICAGO, June 5.—A cyclone occurred near Mason City, Illinois, last Friday night. It was a land cloud, a kind of smoke like column was observed gathering near the earth's surface on an open prairie, six miles from that place, and from this column soon shot out three narrower and spire like cloud columns which and thirty minutes. The machine came up about three feet here to day, and is rapidly rising. Reports from up the river say the indications are that this June rise will be one of the highest ever known.

Another feature of the cyclone was that while its rotary motion must have been of an inconceivably great velocity, its progressive motion was not above the rate of six miles an hour. The outlines of its pathway are so well defined that five feet from the outer line of the total destruction of vegetable of every kind, not a vestige of its effects could be seen. Fortunately no houses stood in the tornado's line of march.

THE Huntington Republican says: "A charter will be applied for at the August term of our Chancery Court for a Railroad through the State of Tennessee, on the supposed line from Paducah, Kentucky, to Corinth, Mississippi, and as soon thereafter as practicable it is expected that the work will commence at this place, and the road be completed to Lexington as soon as possible."

THE Tama (Iowa) Citizen suggests that some of the Indian propooses in that neighborhood look as if they had been too near the white settlements, but thinks they may grow darker as they grow older.
